

Personal Pronoun Review/Worksheet

Name: _____

Hour: _____

		Possessive
		Subject	Object	Pre-noun	Alone
First	Singular	I	me	my	mine
	Plural	we	us	our	ours
Second		you		your	yours
Third	Masculine	he	him	his
	Feminine	she	her	hers
	Neutral	it		its
	Plural	they	them	their	theirs

Subject pronouns represent the person or thing doing the action described by the verb:

I ran around the room.

They saw the movie.

He went outside.

Object pronouns represent any other people or things involved in the sentence:

The man gave us a check.

The dog licked him on the nose.

The book bored them.

Possessive pronouns represent ownership. If you include the noun, use the “pre-noun” version:

The cat nibbled your finger.

My book has a red cover.

If the possessive pronoun stands alone, use the “alone” version:

This book is yours.

This car is theirs.

 IMPORTANT NOTE: Using conjunctions ***

When combining pronouns with “and”, “or”, and other conjunctions, use the form that you’d use without the conjunction. For instance:

👉 Correct: He and I are going out to the movies.

👉 Incorrect: Me and him are going out to the movies.

👉 Compare: We are going out to the movies.

👉 Correct: I’m good friends with her and him.

👉 Incorrect: I’m good friends with he and she.

👉 Compare: I’m good friends with them.

👉 Correct: Just between you and me, this is a common error.

👉 Incorrect: Just between you and I, this is a common error.

👉 Compare: Just between us, this is a common error.
